

ALBUQUERQUE IS PLEASED WITH NEW FAIR OFFICIALS

Hearty Approval Heard on All Sides.

SUBSCRIPTION COMMITTEES
ALREADY GETTING RESULTS

Universal and hearty approval of the selections of the committee of fifteen for the officers of the fair of 1936, followed the announcement of the work of the committee in the Morning Journal yesterday. Business men, professional men, housewives, citizens generally have voiced their approval in no uncertain terms. The feeling throughout the city is that the right thing has been done and that the result is bound to be a success.

Equally enthusiastic is the approval of the public spirit which prompted the men who are to carry the burden of the management to volunteer and insist on doing the work without a cent of pay from the fair or any other source. It is the kind of public spirit that talks little and does a great deal and it has served to revive all of the enthusiasm for the annual fair in even more intense degree. All day yesterday men in all walks were coming forward by tens and dozens to congratulate the new officers and to tender their assistance in every way possible. The new executive staff has been once acquired the unanimous support of the entire city, without exception. Complete confidence is felt in the men in charge, and the work of making the next fair a success has already been half accomplished by the gaining of the support and co-operation of the city. It takes enthusiasm to make a successful fair. The enthusiasm is present in abundant supply. It is the kind of enthusiasm that will carry through the winter and spring and summer, the kind that will send the fair of 1936 off with a whoop and finish it up with a bank account.

All Officers Accepted.
Formal acceptance of all of the officers elected by the committee of fifteen has been received with the exception of Hon. Solomon Luna, the president. Mr. Luna is a sheep rancher in the Magdalena district and could not be reached yesterday. His public spirit, however, is well known and there is not a doubt in the minds of his friends that he will accept the honor and the work involved in the office.

The committees on subscription began working yesterday. It is the first hard work of the fair. There is a considerable amount of money to be raised, for it will be necessary to first pay the indebtedness against the association before anything else can be done. This is exactly what the new officers propose to do. Many subscriptions have been doubled already, some of them without a word from the committee the subscribers coming forward voluntarily. In order to show their approval of the course of the committee at fifteen. The larger subscribers particularly are showing a disposition to be generous in their subscriptions, while the business men without an exception stand ready to help. Not one could be found yesterday who did not voice his hearty approval of the program.

"I like the spirit of the new fair management," said one of the heaviest subscribers yesterday, who by the way has doubled his subscription. "It is the spirit that has made Albuquerque a winner. It is the spirit with which this fair simply can't lose. We will have to help, but we needn't worry. With the backing of the people of Albuquerque which these men are sure to get, the thing can't lose; that's all there is to it."

This, briefly is the sentiment of every business man appeared yesterday in the Morning Journal yesterday for an opinion. "We are ready to help" and "It can't lose."

New Officers Confident.
The newly elected officers are also confident of success. They also declare that with the spirit and swing with which the work has started off that it "can't lose" and they are going into the work with a vigor which is already bringing results of a definite nature.

CHILD HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH
FOOT CAUGHT IN STIRRUP—HORSE RUNS AWAY—WANTED TO RIDE HORSE AGAIN.
The little daughter of J. F. Brown, an attorney in the First National Bank building, had a narrow escape from serious injury if not from death yesterday afternoon when a horse she was riding, threw her and ran away, the child's foot being caught in the stirrup. The horse, ordinarily a gentle animal, became frightened on North Second street and dashed across Railroad avenue at a terrific pace. The child lost her grip on the saddle just after passing Railroad avenue and fell. Spectators were horrified to see her foot caught in the stirrup and a dozen men started forward expecting to pick up a badly injured rider. Fortunately the child was dragged but a few feet and through soft mud, so that she escaped with nothing more than a few bruises. She was plucky and wanted to mount the horse again.

TWO CALLS FOR THE POLICE
UNEASY HOUSEHOLDERS RING UP HEADQUARTERS ON FALSE ALARMS.
Two calls for police to arrest alleged house-breakers were reported last night. One was from Teras road, where a frightened woman wanted an officer to arrest a drunken citizen who rang the front door bell and looked mysterious and burglar-like. The other came from a South Sixth street home where a man had been seen to cross the back yard. Both cases are believed to have been false alarms. The warnings of the recent window raising jobs have served to put the people on their guard and with the close search the police are making, there is thought to be little danger of further trouble.
